

Take the AARP Driver Safety Program

The nation's first and largest classroom refresher for motorists age 50 and older

- § Learn how to avoid driving hazards.
- § Minimal course fee of $12.00 for AARP members & $14.00 for those who are not AARP members.
- § No tests!
- § Auto insurance discounts in most states-consult your insurance agent.

The Hudson Police Department will be sponsoring the AARP Driver Safety Program. This eight-hour classroom course is designed especially for drivers age 50 and older.

DateS:            March 17th & 18th, 2010 (8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.)
                      June 9th & 10th, 2010 (4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.)
                      October 13th & 14th, 2010 (8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.)

Location:        The Ann Seabury Community Room
                      Hudson Police Department
                      1 Constitution Drive
                      Hudson, New Hampshire 03051

Class size will be limited to 25 individuals, so please call and reserve your seat today!!

To reserve your spot contact Master Patrol Officer Joe Hoebeke, Hudson Police Department (603) 886-6011 ex. 2455.

Sponsored By:
The Hudson Police Department

