On July 04, 2007, at about 0222 hrs the Hudson Police Department was notified by the Tyngsboro Police Department that a member of the Hudson Police Department, Officer Brandon CANNATA was taken into custody early this morning by the Chelmsford Police for various motor vehicle charges including Operating While Under the Influence. Lowell Police also have charges of Leaving the Scene of an Accident with personal injuries. CANNATA was immediately suspended and relieved of duty by Chief GENDRON pending an Internal Administrative Investigation conducted by the Hudson Police Department.

The Hudson Police Department views these charges filed against CANNATA as very serious and wants to ensure the citizens of Hudson, and the family of the injured parties, that they can be assured this matter will be completely investigated and dealt with fairly.
